innofied

ENTERPRISES

If you are looking for an enterprise development partner we will help you assess your business needs, your market, your customers, your competition and your key challenge to address them with an enterprise solution.

STARTUPS / INDIVIDUAL ENTREPRENEURS

We provide a slew of startup services that work on a shoestring budget, but are highly feasible with the demands of your target market.

SMALL & MID SIZE

Maintaining in-house technical team is expensive. It is better if you outsource to a dedicated offshore team like us, to look after your design, development & QA needs without shifting your focus from core business aspects.

Industries We Serve

We expertize in serving 6 key industry verticals and several micro verticals.

Chris McGreal
Co-founder, Cordial Experiences

"Their execution and communication is excellent. Collaboration with our architects, backend engineers, product and design team in a very agile fashion has been instrumental. They take pride in their work and always exhibit a strong sense of ownership in all of their deliverables."

Frank Curtin
COO, Pivot Point Enterprises

"We are so impressed with our new capabilities that Innofied team has come up with, especially now that we've identified new revenue opportunities we didn't think about prior to building our vision."

Mikkel Pitzner
CEO, Doc And Do

"We had our backs up against the wall to complete some coding that was necessary for our SaaS app. Innofied once again rescued us. Thank you Innofied for bring your "A" game to the party. Your knowledge about not only what we needed, but also what we did not need saved us a lot of time and money."
